North Carolina Insurance Commissioner's Office Hosts Insurance Camp

NEW BERN, N.C. – The North Carolina Department of Insurance Commissioner's Office will host an Insurance Camp for citizens affected by Hurricane Florence to meet with insurance representatives on Tuesday, September 25, 2018 from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the Lowe's Home Improvement Store located at 1400 Lowe's Boulevard in New Bern.

Insurance Commissioner Mike Causey has organized consumer assistance centers to help storm victims recover from the damaged incurred by Hurricane Florence. The Insurance Camp will allow storm victims direct access to their insurance companies.

"We are going in to flood-ravaged areas to assist people whose homes and lives have been devastated by Hurricane Florence," said Commissioner Causey. "We want to help people get connected with their insurance companies and other agencies who can answer questions and address concerns so they can file insurance claims and can get their lives back on track as soon as possible."
