Transitional Sheltering Assistance (TSA)

The Transitional Sheltering Assistance program provides short-term hotel stays to survivors who were displaced from their homes and need shelter while they look for longer-term housing. Survivors will be notified of their eligibility through an automated phone call, text message, and/or email depending upon the method of communication they selected when they registered for assistance. Or call the disaster assistance helpline at 800-621-3362 or 800-462-7585 (TTY).

- TSA is available to eligible survivors whose pre-disaster primary residence is in one of the following nine counties: Brunswick, Carteret, Columbus, Craven, Jones, New Hanover, Onslow, Pender or Robeson.

Direct Temporary Housing Assistance

FEMA is providing Direct Temporary Housing Assistance in 13 counties: Bladen, Brunswick, Carteret, Columbus, Craven, Duplin, Jones, Lenoir, New Hanover, Onslow, Pamlico,

FEMA NC News Desk for media inquiries only: 256-454-3863

Pender and Robeson. Travel trailers and manufactured housing units are provided for eligible households displaced from their homes.

Disaster Tax Relief

Survivors of Hurricane Florence may qualify for tax relief from the Internal Revenue Service. Taxpayers may be eligible for deadline extensions to file returns or pay taxes, and may be able to claim qualified disaster losses. The IRS may waive fees and expedite requests from survivors. To download forms and publications, go to IRS or call 800-829-3676. For general tax questions, call 800-829-1040.

U.S. Housing and Urban Development (HUD)

HUD has activated the Disaster Assistance Hotline for North Carolinians living in HUD-assisted housing who were affected by Hurricane Florence. Call 800-304-9320 to learn about resources. Survivors can also email recovery@hud.gov to contact HUD. Additional information is available at HUD programs online.

Mitigation Outreach

Disaster survivors can get tips and advice on how to rebuild stronger against future storm damage from FEMA flood mitigation specialists at Disaster Recovery Centers and at select hardware and home improvement stores for a limited time.
